

NMN CONGRATULATES THE PRESIDENT-ELECT, GENERAL MUHAMMADU BUHARI (RTD.)

In the name of Allah, The Beneficent, The Merciful, The Possessor of (the ultimate) kingdom. He enthrones whomsoever He wills and dethrones whomsoever He wills.

The Nigerian Muslims Network (NMN), a network of Muslims in Nigeria and diaspora wishes to join the Muslims and entire Nigerians in congratulating the President-elect, General Muhammadu Buhari on his victory in the just concluded 2015 presidential elections. We urge the President-elect to do everything possible within the laws to deliver on his mandate and promises to the people. There is no doubt that he will find best examples in the ways of the Prophet Muhammad (peace and blessing be upon him) in conducting the affairs of this nation. It is our belief that the President-elect has fear of Allah, the wisdom and maturity to lead the country to prosperity. We pray that Allah (SWT) increase him, his Vice President and other team members in wisdom, sound health and good sense of governance to lead Nigeria.

We also wish to commend the incumbent President Goodluck Jonathan for his prompt acceptance of the outcome of the presidential elections, and manifestation of strong sense of political maturity. This is a remarkable act in the history of Nigeria. The Nigerian Muslims Network and indeed Nigerian Muslim populace as a whole appreciate his magnanimity in defeat and commend him for providing an enabling environment for the Independent National Electoral Commission (INEC).

We cannot but also applaud and be thankful to Professor Attahiru Jega and his team for conducting a transparent, free and credible election.

Finally, we congratulate the people of Nigeria. We appreciate and thank them all for their peaceful disposition in the just concluded presidential election and anticipate better disposition in the remaining elections. We equally solicit their prayers and support for the success of the incoming administration. United We stand, Divided We fall.

Signed,
